□ 1225

Messrs. ROHRABACHER, FOSSELLA, HULSHOF and GALLEGLY changed their vote from "no" to "aye."

So the amendment was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. CUMMINGS. Mr. Chairman, I was unavoidably detained by official business and was not present to vote on three amendments:

Rollcall vote No. 396, on the Greenwood-Lowey amendment to H.R. 4811, had I been present I would have voted "yea."

Rollcall vote No. 397, on the Waters amendment to H.R. 4811, had I been present I would have voted "yea."

Rollcall vote No. 398, on the Lee amendment to H.R. 4811, had I been present I would have voted "yea."

The CHAIRMAN. Are there other amendments to this title of the bill?

If there are no further amendments to this title, the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

AMERICAN CHURCHWOMEN IN EL SALVADOR

SEC. 588. (a) Information relevant to the December 2, 1980, murders of four American churchwomen in El Salvador shall be made public to the fullest extent possible.

(b) The Secretary of State and the Department of State are to be commended for fully releasing information regarding the murders.

(c) The President shall order all Federal agencies and departments that possess relevant information to make every effort to declassify and release to the victims' families relevant information as expeditiously as possible.

(d) In making determinations concerning the declassification and release of relevant information, the Federal agencies and departments shall presume in favor of releasing, rather than of withholding, such information.

HIPC TRUST FUND CONDITIONS

SEC. 589. Beginning in fiscal year 2002, funds shall be appropriated to the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries Initiative only when the President of the World Bank and the Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund submit a certification to the Secretary of the Treasury that the Institutions they head will not include user fees or service charges through "community financing", "cost sharing", "cost recovery", or any other mechanism for primary education or primary healthcare, including prevention and treatment efforts for AIDS, malaria, tuberculosis, and infant, child, and maternal well-being in their Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers or any other HIPC-related debt relief or economic reform program or plan or any other International Monetary Fund or World Bank loan or reform program.

SEC. 590. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to pay for the performance of abortion or to lobby for or against abortion.

PROCUREMENT AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT REFORM

SEC. 591. (a) Of the funds made available under the heading "International Financial Institutions" in this or any prior Act making appropriations for foreign operations, export financing, or related programs, 10 percent of the United States portion or payment to any international financial institution shall be withheld by the Secretary of the Treasury, until the Secretary certifies that—

(1) the institution is implementing procedures for conducting semiannual audits by qualified independent auditors for all new lending;

(2) the institution has taken steps to establish an independent fraud and corruption investigative organization or office;

(3) the institution has implemented a program to assess a recipient country's procurement and financial management capabilities, including an analysis of the risks of corruption prior to initiating new lending; and

(4) the institution is taking steps to fund and implement independent third-party procurement monitoring and other similar measures designed to improve transparency, anticorruption programs, procurement, and financial management controls in recipient countries.

(b) REPORT.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall report on March 1, 2001, to the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate on progress made to fulfill the objectives identified in subsection (a).

(c) DEFINITION.—The term "international financial institution" means the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the International Development Association, the International Finance Corporation, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Inter-American Investment Corporation, the Enterprise for the Americas Multilateral Investment Fund, the Asian Development Bank, the Asian Development Fund, the African Development Bank, the African Development Fund, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and the International Monetary Fund.

Mrs. LOWEY. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

The CHAIRMAN. Is the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) the designee of the gentlewoman from California (Ms. PELOSI)?

Mrs. LOWEY. Yes, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DELAHUNT. Mr. Chairman, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. LOWEY. I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts.

Mr. DELAHUNT. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

I rise to engage in a colloquy with the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) as the designee of the gentlewoman from California (Ms. PELOSI).

I want to commend the members of the Committee on Appropriations and, in particular, the gentlewoman from California (Ms. PELOSI) and the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) for recognizing the important role that women play in Southeast Europe in the former Soviet Union. I would also like to note several innovative steps that the Europe and Eurasia Bureau of AID has taken to ensure that gender issues are considered in our programming. By gender issues, we mean identifying and analyzing the problems and possibilities that may affect men and women differently and using that information to carry out programs which address the needs and opportunities of both women and men.

For example, at a policy level, gender issues are integrated throughout the new E&E strategic framework, the policy document which will shape AIDS work in the region for the next several years. This is a first step for a USAID regional bureau.

The language includes the following: gender is being integrated into the Europe and Eurasia programs to ensure that the United States is promoting equal access and opportunities, equal
